Teachers Reflection

Teacher Reflection – June 2025

By Ms. Nikita Lomte.

“Teaching is the art of awakening the joy of learning in young minds.”

The month of June marked a refreshing new beginning as we welcomed our students back with open arms and hopeful hearts. The reopening of school was filled with excitement, energy, and the promise of meaningful learning.

We celebrated World Environment Day with a range of activities that encouraged students to become eco-conscious citizens. It was inspiring to see their enthusiasm for protecting and preserving our planet.

International Yoga Day and World Music Day brought a sense of balance and joy—promoting physical well-being through yoga and emotional expression through music. These events reminded us of the importance of holistic education.

Democracy came alive in our corridors during the School Elections, where students actively participated in the process, showcasing leadership and decision-making skills.

One of the proudest moments this month was the Investiture Ceremony, where the newly elected student council took charge. It was a celebration of responsibility, discipline, and trust in student leadership.

Additionally, I was privileged to attend a highly enriching training session led by Ms. Smitha Sham from the Academy for Creative Teaching (ACT). It offered fresh perspectives and innovative strategies that will surely enhance our teaching practices.

June has been a month of revival, responsibility, and reflection—a wonderful start to what promises to be a fulfilling academic year.
